MCCMH-SUD Funded Recovery Home Eligibility Flow Chart

Is the person served unhoused or in an unsafe living environment that is not conducive to the remission of their substance use?

- No → No referral necessary
- Yes ↓

Has the person served reached out to family/friends and is unable to secure safe housing?

- No → Assist the person served in contacting family/friends to secure a safe place to stay.
- Yes ↓

Does the person served meet the Block Grant income eligibility requirements as defined in the current MCCMH SUD Sliding Fee Scale?

- No → The person served is not eligible for MCCMH SUD funded recovery housing. Assist the person served in seeking affordable housing. → Resources → https://www.shelterlistings.org http://www.211us.org/ https://www.macombgov.org/node/53/housing-assistance-programs
- Yes ↓

Is the individual willing to seek employment while residing in the recovery home to ensure that they are able to move to self-pay at the end of their MCCMH-SUD funded stay?

- No → The person served is not eligible for MCCMH SUD funded recovery housing. Assist the person served in seeking affordable housing. → Resources → https://www.shelterlistings.org http://www.211us.org/ https://www.macombgov.org/node/53/housing-assistance-programs
- Yes ↓

Has the person served been approved for MCCMH-SUD funding and completed an intake at a contracted recovery home provider within the past six (6) months?

- Yes → The person is not eligible for MCCMH SUD funded recovery housing. Assist the person served in seeking affordable housing. → Resources → https://www.shelterlistings.org http://www.211us.org/ https://www.macombgov.org/node/53/housing-assistance-programs
- No ↓

Has the person successfully completed residential treatment funded by MCCMH-SUD, or has the person completed their intake and two additional clinical services with an MCCMH-SUD funded OP/IOP/OTP provider and is willing to continue to attend OP/IOP/OTP weekly with that provider?

- No → The person served may not be ready or appropriate for recovery housing at this time. Assist the person served in seeking affordable housing. → Resources → https://www.shelterlistings.org http://www.211us.org/ https://www.macombgov.org/node/53/housing-assistance-programs
- Yes ↓

Is the person served in the action stage of change and is there documentation that will be submitted to provide evidence of this?

- No → The person served may not be ready or appropriate for recovery housing at this time. Assist the person served in seeking affordable housing.
- Yes ↓

Are the preson served's physical, psychiatric, and SUD health concerns monitored and stable at this time? (i.e. able to independently care for daily needs and function in a shared living situation)

- No → Assist the person served in coordinating services with a primary care physician, behavioral health provider, or other applicable provider. Person served is not appropriate for MCCMH SUD funding without having appropriate health care in place.
- Yes ↓

If on medications, does the person served have a prescriber willing to continue prescriptions for those medications?

- No → Assist the person served in coordinating services with a primary care physician, behavioral health provider, or other applicable provider. Person served is not appropriate for MCCMH-SUD funding without having appropriate health care in place.
- Yes ↓

Does the treatment plan include goals for recovery housing, participating in weekly recovery meetings and seeking employment/volunteer opportunities?

- No → Treatment plan must be updated prior to moving forward.
- Yes ↓

Complete the Change in Level of Care (CLOC) form in the FOCUS EMR including the clinical rationale for referral to a recovery home. Completion of this form indicates that it is the clinical determination of the treating SUD provider that the person served meets all eligibility criteria as indicated in this flow chart.

Updated August 2026