“CELEBRATING OUR PARTNERSHIPS WITH BUSINESSES”

2019 ANNUAL REPORT

FROM THE HSCB LEAD AGENCY CHAIR

DAVID PANKOTAI
MACOMB HSCB
LEAD AGENCY CHAIR

The Macomb County Human Services Coordinating Body hosted its annual holiday recognition luncheon in December to highlight the support received from various individuals and/or organizations. Every year, there is a different theme. This year’s theme was “Celebrating our Partnerships with Businesses.”

We recognized the contributions, both in-kind and monetary, that six businesses made to help our projects be successful. These businesses made the choice to act in ways that improve the well-being of Macomb County residents, including: veterans, people experiencing homelessness, children with developmental disabilities and their families, and those with thoughts of suicide.

So, why are partnerships so important? Nationally-recognized marketing expert Bruce Burtch, who helps for-profit and nonprofit organizations develop win-win partnerships, states:

“There is nothing in business today that provides as much economic and social benefit, on as many levels, to as many stakeholders, as a strategic partnership between any combination of the nonprofit, for-profit, education and government sectors when focused on the greater good. Nothing else comes even close.”

Bruce Burtch

Partnerships are of particular importance in these challenging economic times. It is with the help of for-profits that we, as non-profits, can sustain and expand needed programming which provides greater benefit to all.

We can’t thank our donors enough. It is through their kind-heartedness that the HSCB and our Affiliated Collaboratives are able to continue to offer programs that benefit Macomb County individuals and families in need.
